

Blueprint Reading Course

Contact the RDCA office or email at info@rdca.ca

Knowing how to navigate through construction blueprints is a vital skill. This course focuses on how to read blueprints and specifications, tolerances, dimensions and terminology.

This 2 day course is ideal for anyone that works with blueprints on a regular basis.

- WHEN: November 14 & 15, 2016
2 full days, includes material & lunch (8:00 am to 5:00pm)
- WHERE: Red Deer Construction Association Office
- Cost: $650.00 (+GST) or members; $750 (+GST) for non-members

Name: _____

Company: _____

Contact Phone No. & E-mail: _____

---

Instructor: Gerald Cree: Estimating

Gerald is a professional (P. GSC) Gold-Seal certified construction management professional with over 40+ years' experience managing large-scale residential, commercial, industrial and environmental projects throughout Western Canada and the United States. His experience covers all aspects of construction management including ; design, development, estimation, project planning, tendering and procurement with additional expertise in civil, structural, electrical and mechanical disciplines. Throughout his career, Gerald has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to professional development and has successfully achieved certification in many areas, notably: Project Management Professional (PMP), Gerald brings an in-depth knowledge of the industry met with real world experience to his role as instructor for the Canadian Construction Institute.

Take advantage of the NEW Canada-Alberta Job Grant to Save on this Course Fee

- The job grant program assists employers train workers to meet their specific needs
- The program puts skills training decisions in the hands of Alberta employers
- Employers select the candidates for training, and decide what training is required
- Employers have a job available for the candidate at the end of the training
- The training must up-skill current employees or prepare new employees at the entry level
- Employers contribute 1/3 financially to the training, and the Grant pays 2/3.

Canada Alberta Job Grant Guide

Canada Alberta Job Grant Application Form

Local Contact for Grant
Support
1-855-638-9424