

Our member Procore Technologies today announced six ways to help the construction community during COVID-19.

1. It is providing free access to its software platform to support COVID-19 Related construction projects.
2. A COVID-19 Resource Center has been set up that provides updates on key Procore, industry and government developments around the world that affect the industry.
3. Free access to Procore Project Management for new customers to manage their projects until July 15th, 2020.
4. Existing Procore Project Management clients can have free access to Procore Quality and Safety until July 15th to strengthen their safety initiatives.
5. Integrate Procore with Zoom video conferencing for free to stay connected, practice social distancing and allowing for remote collaboration.
6. Learn from peers and industry with their weekly webinar roundtables as industry leaders share innovative ways to adjusting and overcoming the challenges provided by COVID-19.

For more information please visit www.procore.com or reach out to Sanjeev Dhillon at sanjeev.dhillon@procore.com or on his cell at (604) 306 3020.
